High School Completion Status

Please check the box next to the type of documentation which you have submitted to Student Records in order to confirm your completion of high school or equivalent.

- A copy of the student’s high school diploma (This will only be accepted by the Financial Aid Office. It is not considered “official” documentation).
- A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- An official GED transcript that indicates the student passed the exams.
- A state certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (HiSET, TASC or other State-authorized examination).
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- For a homeschooled student from a state where state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential. For a homeschooled student from a state where state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
- For military students who are unable to obtain one of the documents listed above, a copy of the student’s DD214 that indicates the student is a high school graduate or equivalent

A student who is unable to obtain the documentation listed above should contact the financial aid office.
