TARBORO — The Edgecombe Community College Foundation raised $42,109 during its 40th annual golf tournament on Sept. 24 at Maccripine Country Club in

The tournament drew 34 teams and 136 players, continuing a four-decade tradition of community support for Edgecombe Community College students. Participants competed in a four-person scramble.

“This was an outstanding year thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, donors, players and volunteers,” said Tameka Kenan-Norman, executive director of public information and institutional advancement at Edgecombe Community College. “The funds raised through this tournament help remove financial barriers for students and support programs that contribute to their success. From scholarships and emergency assistance to educational opportunities and student leadership programs, these dollars make a meaningful difference in the lives of our students.”

Warren Accounting Group ruled the first flight, followed by Edmondson Insurance Agency and GH3. In the second flight, BXK Capital Trading took first place, followed by Infinity Link and UNC Health Nash.

Corporate sponsors included Astemo and LS Cable & System USA. Other top-level sponsors included Brightspeed, Cummins Rocky Mount Engine Plant and Bojangles/Tands Inc. Additional businesses, organizations and individuals contributed through sponsorships and donations.

Photos from the tournament are available at edgecombe.edu/golf.
