

The N.E.W. Business of Agriculture: Regional Opportunities for Growth in Nash, Edgecombe & Wilson Counties

Friday, Nov. 30, 2018 • 8:30 AM - 3:15 PM
Frank L. Eagles Community Business Center
Wilson Community College • 902 Herring Ave • Wilson, NC 27893

WILSON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Keynote, Seminars, & Lunch Panel

- The Future of Ag in Eastern NC
- Agritourism - Diversification Opportunities to Raise Farm Revenues
- The Growing Business of Industrial Hemp
- Cash Crops for the Small Acreage Entrepreneur
- Organic Opportunities for Your Farm
- Revenue Streams from Farm Crop Waste
- New Farmer, Innovative Operations, & Veteran Farmer Funding Options
- Business Startup Making a Value-Added Food Product from a Home or Non-Home Based Kitchen
- Regional Food & Farming Supply Chain Opportunities
- Growing Your Business - Is your Product Marketing on Target?
- Local Direct Marketing for the Small Scale Producer, Retailer, Farmer's Markets, & Road-Side Stands

FREE EVENT

Please join us if you are a:

- Farmer
- Agripreneur
- Value Added Producer
- Person Interested in Small Plot Niche Crops
- New Farmer or Veteran Considering Farm Ownership
- Farmer's Market Vendor Seeking Growth
- Organic Grower or Seller
- Person Exploring an Ag Related Business

Register at WILSONCC.EDU/NEW-AG-SUMMIT for the Ag Summit Seminar events. Register for the keynote address and choose up to three seminars. Adults Only. Lunch will be available on campus during a lunchtime panel discussion.

For more information, contact:

Melissa Evans • 252.246.1232
Wilson Community College

Katelyn Edmondson • 252.823.5166
Edgecombe Community College

Theresa Peaden • 252.451.8233
Nash Community College

In partnership with

NC GROWING TOGETHER
Connecting Local Foods
to Mainstream Markets

